Diiwaanka Maansooyinkii Abshir Bacadle (The poetry of Abshir Bacadle).

Late Abshir Bacadle was one of the leading Somali poets in the 21st century. He will be greatly remembered in his entire collection of poems during this difficult period of time (the Somali civil war). Abshir Ba'adle was one of the great and prolific Somali poets of his time. His poems were mostly on the Islamic faith, the civil war in Somalia, reconciliation, natural disasters such as famine, and the rights of women and the poor. He left behind a wealth of material that will benefit generations to come. Many poems were conducted for the benefit of Zamzam, a young female imprisoned in Hargeisa, and a chain of poems were written about her case when Abshir Bacadle shed light on her case. She was finally released.

Ciyaaraha Hiddaha Iyo (Dhaqanka Soomaaliyeed) (Somali Folk Dances)

Primarily, this book intends to give those who are unfamiliar with Somali folk dances, a preliminary over-all view of the dance traditions of Somalia. An attempt is made in this publication to depict the dance traditions of Somalia in broad terms, supplementing the verbal portrayal with illustrations and photographs wherever possible. Far from being scholastic, the approach has been in the nature of an introduction to a subject at once fascinating and is meant for the layman. Being part and parcel of the every day life of the Somali people, folk dances is handed down from generation to generation. Thus, folk dances of Somalia unfold bewildering varieties of styles, rhythms, colors, choreography, costumes, movements and songs. The subject matter has also been restricted to the discussion of items of traditional recreational folk dance which a casual visitor to Somalia is likely to encounter at any normal performance on a modern stage in contemporary Somalia. An attempt has also been made to give an outline of the original sources, mainly recreational, from which such items derive inspiration. Finally, the author's crucial aim is to create an atmosphere of awareness to show that we still have an enduring ancient folk dance and culture. A great book with beautiful illustrations to be read over and over again. Indeed a fascinating and great contribution in this new and untapped field.

Amran Iyo Abshir (Amran and Abshir)

This is a bilingual children and teens folktale (English-Somali) Amran and Abshir had been married for six moons and their love blossomed like the lovely roses which bloom and bloom in the spring . Lately, though, Amran feared the bloom was diminishing. Amran noticed when he spoke to her, his eyes were absent, and sometimes his tone was impatient. She dreaded the fearful journey from ardor and joyful passion to indifference or worse. “What will come next?” she asked herself.

Follow this dramatic story which ends in a tragedy....

Dakuu Shiday Darwiishkii

(The Fire Ignited by the Dervish Movement)

This is a historical play outlining The Dervish Movement, a movement that fought the longest anti-colonial war in the Somali History for over two decades. The Movement was led by Sayid Mohammed A. Hassan who was in struggle for more than twenty years (1900-1920's) until his stronghold, Taleh Fort, was bombarded by modern military aeroplanes in 1920. It was the first air bombardment event in the history of Africa. The Dervish movement who courageously fought were finally defeated and the movement disintegrated in 1921. This is truly a marvel of plays.

(The naming of our clan)

This book is a personal exploration of the author into the heavily disputed issues of clanship and its origins. Are the clans real or based on baseless hearsay tales. The author does an excellent job of bringing together research and personal exploration to illuminate and shed light on what many have considered to be the root cause of the ailments of Somali unity. The author explores where these actual clans emerge from, and how is it that what was once a unifying factor of peaceful co existence has today become an insurmountable barrier to the nation's prosperity.

Wiil iyo Libaax Saaxiibay
(A boy and a lion).

Geeddi is a 15 year old nomadic boy who is an expert in taking care of his families camel herd (he is a professional camel boy). One day he slept under a tree and was extremely tired. Before he fell asleep his mother told him that tomorrow the whole neighbourhood will move to another location with better grazing and water for the animals. Geddi was still sleeping un-der the tree and was unfortunately forgotten and left behind. He was awakened by heavy rains. He tried to follow the footsteps of the caravan but could not see because of the heavy rain. The boy starts a long journey with full challenges and hardships which took him months before he finally reunified with his family. It is published in 2014 as a video book(DVD)
